

A conference co-presented by the ICC International Court of Arbitration, Stephenson Harwood, 12 Wentworth Selborne Chambers and Latham & Watkins:

Arbitrating international disputes in South East Asia: current best practices and potential reforms

A masterclass for In-House Counsel.

Free for members of ICC National Committees.

Topics will include:

- The recent wave of new institutional rules
- Emergency Arbitrator procedures
- Controlling the cost of international arbitration: what can in-house counsel do?
- Recent legal developments in South East Asia
- Overcoming resource nationalism and state expropriation

Networking reception sponsored by Cogence Search.

Up to 6.5 CPD hour available.

Date 3 December 2013

Venue The Westin, 12 Marina View,
Asia Square Tower 2, Singapore

Programme

08:30	Registration
09:00	Welcome address
09:15	The recent wave of new institutional rules
10:15	Morning tea
10:45	Emergency Arbitrator procedures
11:45	Controlling the cost of international arbitration: what can in-house counsel do?
12:45	Lunch
13:45	Recent legal developments in South East Asia
14:45	Afternoon tea
15:30	Overcoming resource nationalism and state expropriation
16:30	Networking reception – sponsored by Cogence Search

Programme

Arbitrating international disputes in South East Asia: current best practice and potential reform

3 December 2013, The Westin, Singapore

09:00	Welcome address	Ho Meng Kit – CEO, ICC National Committee for Singapore
09:15 – 10:15	The recent wave of new institutional rules	Chair: Simon Powell – Partner, Latham & Watkins Cheng-Yee Khong – Director & Counsel, ICC International Court of Arbitration Secretariat – Asia office Philip Jeyaretnam SC – Managing Partner, Rodyk & Davidson LLP Terry Mehigan – 12 Wentworth Selborne Chambers
10:45 – 11:45	Emergency Arbitrator procedures	Chair: James Renwick SC – 12 Wentworth Selborne Chambers Philip Clifford – Partner, Latham & Watkins Dirk Janssen – Partner, Stephenson Harwood Sylvia Tee – Director, ICC Arbitration & ADR, Asia, ICC Dispute Resolution Services
11:45 – 12:45	Controlling the cost of international arbitration: what can in-house counsel do?	Chair: Durai Shunmugam – Partner, Stephenson Harwood Oliver Browne – Partner, Latham & Watkins Wesley Harris – Managing Counsel, Shell Malaysia Daniel Meltz – 12 Wentworth Selborne Chambers Dagfinn Nygaard – General Counsel Asia Pacific Region, ConocoPhillips
13:45 – 14:45	Recent legal developments in South East Asia	Chair: Michael Hwang SC – Michael Hwang, Singapore Phillip Rompotis – Partner, Stephenson Harwood Simon Davidson – Partner, Holman Fenwick Willan Daryll Ng – Partner, Virtus Law
15:30 – 16:30	Overcoming resource nationalism and state expropriation	Chair: Shai Wade – Partner, Stephenson Harwood Dr Christopher Ward – 12 Wentworth Selborne Chambers Bill Sullivan – Counsel, Christian Teo Purwono & partners George Burn – Partner, Vinson & Elkins
16:30	Networking reception	Sponsored by Cogence Search