

Hispanic/Latin American Lawyers Group

Mission Statement and Goals

The Hispanic/Latin American (HLA) Lawyers Group brings together Latham lawyers (including allies) with personal and business ties to — or a general interest in — the Hispanic/Latin community to enhance the diversity of the firm; to actively support the increased recruitment, retention, and promotion of Hispanic/Latin American lawyers; and to cultivate networking opportunities and use business relationships to deepen the firm's connection to the Hispanic/Latin American community.

About Us

- We support the success of our members through tailored professional development training and mentoring programs.
- We invest in the pipeline of Hispanic/Latin American law students to increase the diversity of the legal profession.
- We encourage involvement in the Hispanic/Latin American community, including through volunteer work, pro bono opportunities, and serving Spanish- and Portuguese-speaking clients.
- We engage and partner with colleagues, clients, and allies who share our goal of achieving greater inclusion at all levels of the legal profession.
- We foster business relationships in Latin America.
- We host speakers and events to address and educate about issues affecting the Latinx community.

Luisa Ewing
London associate

Nick Gonzalez
New York associate

The Hispanic/Latin American Lawyers Group is one of ten lawyer affinity groups at the firm (which are open to all, including allies). Our affinity groups provide a firmwide platform to share experiences, advice, and interests, and to partner with clients and other groups interested in fostering a more diverse and inclusive profession.