➤ Shout-out to a Latham & Watkins team led by Greg Garre, who represented Oklahoma State Attorney General Gentner Drummond in a test case over public funding for religious charter schools. A deadlocked 4-4 decision from the U.S. Supreme Court last week upheld an Oklahoma Supreme Court ruling on the constitutionality of the state's law requiring public charter schools to be "nonsectarian." The ruling below barred funding for a proposed online Catholic charter school in the state. Garre presented his 50th argument before the Supreme Court last month in the case. The Latham team included associates Jordan Goldberg, Christine Smith, Kristin Holladay, Soren Schmidt and Lia Rose Barrett.
