► Shout out to a Latham & Watkins team led by Michele Johnson, Susan Engel, Andrew Clubok, Elizabeth Deeley and Whitney Weber, with counsel Matthew Peters, and associates Nicholas Rosellini and Wes Horton. The Ninth Circuit this week upheld the dismissal of a securities class against Latham's client Twitter accusing the company of hiding the scope of software bugs when it touted a new advertisement initiative. The court held the securities laws "do not require real-time business updates or complete disclosure of all material information whenever a company speaks on a particular topic."
