OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENTS:

In Wolfspeed, led a groundbreaking restructuring equitizing approximately $1B of existing notes while enhancing liquidity and maintaining normal operations—dramatically reducing debt and positioning the semiconductor company for long-term stability. For ModivCare (formerly Providence Service Corporation), orchestrated a comprehensive transaction equitizing substantial debt, injecting new capital, and strengthening the balance sheet amid a $1.1B-plus capital structure overhaul, preserving enterprise value in the healthcare services space. Advised Pine Gate Renewables in a chapter 11 process facilitating multibillion-dollar sales of renewable energy assets, maximizing recoveries through strategic marketing and stakeholder alignment in one of the largest renewables restructurings. In Office Properties Income Trust, he guided a prearranged chapter 11 implementing a restructuring support agreement with the September 2029 Ad Hoc Group, equitizing debt and securing $125M in committed new-money DIP financing syndicated to noteholders—providing runway for continued operations. Representing IG Design Group Americas—one of the world’s largest giftwrap manufacturers—led a voluntary chapter 11 filing to conduct a court-supervised section 363 sale process, securing ~$53M DIP financing (including $25M new money approved by the court) to support a value-maximizing strategy, including going-concern sales of business segments.
