

CRAIN'S

December 24-31, 2018

VOL. XXXIII, NOS. 51-52

WWW.CRAINSNEWYORK.COM

NEW YORK BUSINESS

NOTABLE WOMEN IN LAW

2019

The 114 attorneys on the 2019 list of Notable Women in Law have achieved success in their professions, demonstrate exemplary leadership skills, and make an impact on the local community. In addition, these women leaders empower younger women by developing their leadership, legal, and business development skills.

MICHELLE KELBAN

Partner
LATHAM & WATKINS

...

Michelle Kelban leads a team of more than 90 lawyers globally in her role as Global Co-Chair of the firm's Real Estate Practice, where she specializes in commercial real estate law with a particular concentration on real estate finance. She represents capital providers in a variety of real estate transactional structures and has significant experience with a range of property types. Kelban spearheaded an effort to expand the practice's presence in key markets, like London, New York and the West Coast. She also maintains a thriving pro bono practice and has led Latham's holiday gift program for underprivileged children for more than a decade.

JIYEON LEE-LIM

Partner
LATHAM & WATKINS

...

Over the past three decades, Jiyeon Lee-Lim has served as a sophisticated adviser on some of the most complicated cross-border tax issues that arise in corporate transactions around the world. As Global Chair of the firm's Tax Department, she focuses on matters involving international and corporate tax, with a particular emphasis on financial products, capital markets transactions, securitization transactions and cross-border tax planning. Additionally, through the firm's pro bono partnership with Mount Sinai's Center for Transgender Medicine and Surgery, Lee-Lim has spent the last year working closely with individuals to effectuate their name changes.

CLAUDIA SALOMON

Partner
LATHAM & WATKINS

...

Claudia Salomon works closely with companies and states in complex arbitration matters as Global Co-Chair of Latham & Watkins' International Arbitration Practice. She also helps the expansion of the firm's investment treaty arbitration and international commercial arbitration capabilities to meet clients' growing needs. Additionally, Salomon was the first female U.S. member appointed to the International Chamber of Commerce International Court of Arbitration, an institution that aims to resolve international commercial disputes. In June 2018, she was appointed to the prestigious position of Vice President of the Court. Salomon also leads a range of pro bono matters, including several cases focused on voting rights issues.

LATHAM & WATKINS LLP