The American College of Environmental Lawyers Announces Newly-Elected Fellows for 2019

The American College of Environmental Lawyers is proud to announce that this year it has elected twenty-five new Fellows and one Honorary Fellow to membership in the College. Each individual was selected for his or her distinguished experience, high standards of practice and substantial contributions to the field of environmental law

ACOEL President, Allan Gates of Mitchell, Williams, Selig, Gates & Woodyard, P.L.L.C, stated, "the twenty-five lawyers elected as Fellows to the College this year include the top environmental lawyers in government service, public interest, academia, and private practice drawn from across the country. These individuals, chosen by their peers, have earned this recognition based on achievements over a minimum 15-year period, during which they have led the field in diverse areas of environmental law and policy. Our newly elected Honorary Fellow is one of the nation's leading scholars in the field of environmental law and a major voice on the subject regulatory law and reform."

The newly elected Honorary Fellow is Richard L. Revesz. Professor Revesz is the Lawrence King Professor of Law and Dean Emeritus of the New York University School of Law, Director of the NYU Institute for Policy Integrity, and Director of the American Law Institute.
