November 6	Q2 Financial Statements of Large Accelerated and Accelerated Filers
November 12*	Q2 Financial Statements of All Other Filers

*Dates reflect a permitted extension to the next business day where dates would have otherwise occurred on a weekend or federal holiday

A "Loss Corporation" does not expect to report positive income after taxes but before extraordinary items and the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle for (a) the most recently ended fiscal year and (b) at least one of the two prior fiscal years.

A "Large Accelerated Filer" has an aggregate market value held by non-affiliates of $700m or more as of the last business day of the most recent Q2. Once you are in, you have to fall below $500m to get out.

An "Accelerated Filer" has an aggregate market value held by non-affiliates of greater than $75m but less than $700m as of the last business day of the most recent Q2 (unless you were previously a Large Accelerated Filer, in which case the range is $50-500m). Once you are in, you have to fall below $50m to get out.

Special Accommodation for Timely Filers: Staleness dates do not correspond exactly with the Form 10-Q filing deadlines because the 10-Q deadlines run from the end of the most recently ended quarter, whereas the staleness dates run from the end of the preceding quarter. However, the SEC Staff generally provides an accommodation for repeat issuers that have been timely filers for the past 12 months by allowing such issuers' registration statements to become effective during the gap period between the staleness dates shown above and the nearest 10-Q filing deadline, absent unusual circumstances. As a result, for most repeat issuers, the effective staleness date is the same as the applicable 10-K or 10-Q filing deadline.
